HEATING & COOLING INCENTIVE

Go high efficiency. It pays.

Replacing your old furnace and central air conditioner? Get up to $650.

Toronto Regional Real Estate Board

Professionals connecting people, property and communities.

With as much as 60% of your electricity costs going towards heating and cooling your home, investing in efficiency makes sense. When you replace your central air conditioner with a high-efficiency model, you could get back either $250 or $400, depending on its level of efficiency. Replace your old furnace at the same time to qualify for a total incentive of up to $650.
